Perfect starter or wise investment

A beautifully presented, Trevor Homes built, 3-bedroom home in a sought-after location within the Point Cook P-9 School Zone. This ideal home, built in 2010, is perfect for those starting out, downsizing or looking for a fabulous investment. Entering through the front door you will find the spacious Master with walk through his and hers robes leading to an en-suite with shower and complete with vanity. The central family bathroom is located close to the spacious second bedroom with built in robes. The laundry has direct outdoor access to a handy courtyard. The last of the three beautifully presented bedrooms, also with built in robes, lies conveniently toward the rear of the home. Internal access to the home is also available from the double lock up garage to the central hall. The home opens-up into a fantastic kitchen equipped with spacious work areas, stainless steel appliances, a sizeable pantry, and modern colour scheme which complete this exceptional kitchen that overlooks the open plan meals area. The low maintenance rear yard has areas of crushed rock, bluestone pavers and well-maintained garden beds – a perfect spot to enjoy the sunshine. This property boasts other features including quality laminate flooring to living areas and carpeted bedrooms, gas ducted heating, split system cooling, elevated ceilings, and low maintenance gardens.
